WORD

. . . <sup>13</sup>When Joshua was by Jericho, he lifted up his eyes and looked, and behold, a man was standing before him with his drawn sword in his hand. And Joshua went to him and said to him, "Are you for us, or for our adversaries?" <sup>14</sup>And he said, "No; but I am the commander of the army of the Lord. Now I have come." And Joshua fell on his face to the earth and worshiped and said to him, "What does my lord say to his servant?" <sup>15</sup>And the commander of the Lord's army said to Joshua, "Take off your sandals from your feet, for the place where you are standing is holy." And Joshua did so.

GUIDE QUESTIONS

(NUMBERED ACCORDING TO LEVEL OF DEPTH AND READINESS TO SHARE)

1. On a scale of 1-10 (1 = no value, 10 = strong value), how would you rate the way you value other people, especially those that may hold a different ethnicity, political opinion, or economic status from you?
2. Can you think of a time when you were urged to pick a side in a conflict, but internally, you felt that neither side was 100% right? Is that situation resolved? If so, how did you pick a side?
3. Think of a time when you teased or made fun of someone, giving them a name that did not love or honour them. How did that make you feel? How do you think people given these labels feel?
4. What is one way you can align your thoughts with Christ's to ensure you consistently honour and respect the image of God in everyone you meet?
